

Independent Director

Gianpaolo Alessandro is a lawyer, admitted to the Milan Bar, and holds an LL.M. (Master of Laws) in Corporate Finance and Venture Capital from the University of Westminster School of Law in London. He is also qualified to practice law in England as a solicitor. He began his career with leading national and international law firms and subsequently gained over 20 years of managerial experience in listed and regulated companies, both in Italy and abroad. He has held senior positions within the legal departments of major multinational groups operating in the financial and industrial sectors. For more than 10 years, he served as Group General Counsel & Board Secretary of the UniCredit Group.

