

Independent Director

Giuliana Grassia graduated in 2000 with a degree in Business Administration, majoring in Management Consulting, from Bocconi University in Milan.

She currently holds the role of Associate Partner at C2Partners, where she provides business consulting services in competitive strategy, organization, and innovation. She primarily leads projects in the financial sector, focusing on operations, digital transformation, internal control systems, and post-merger integration.

Previously, Giuliana Grassia worked as a Manager at KPMG Advisory, where she was involved in projects related mainly to the reorganization, restructuring, and optimization of processes in banking, insurance, tax collection, and product companies. She later joined CheBanca!, where she held several roles, including Head of Operational Risk Management and, more recently, Head of the Organization Department, overseeing corporate policies, processes, digital transformation, and post-acquisition business integration.

She has also served as a Board Member of Compass Rent, a leasing company within the Mediobanca Group.
