

Chair of the Board of Statutory Auditors

Guido Paolucci graduated with honors from “La Sapienza” University of Rome and has been registered with the Rome Order of Chartered Accountants since 1993 and the Register of Statutory Auditors since 1995. He holds a PhD in Business Economics.

Since 2004, he has been a full professor of Business Economics at the Polytechnic University of Marche (previously Associate Professor since 1998). He is a full member of the Italian Academy of Business Economics.

In his professional practice, he provides corporate, business, and corporate finance consulting services to Italian and international groups and companies. Throughout his career, he has gained extensive experience in business valuation, application of accounting standards—both national (OIC standards) and international (IAS/IFRS)—and preparation of business plans.

He has served as Statutory Auditor in leading banking groups (from 2017 to 2024 as a standing auditor of UniCredit S.p.A., also serving as a member of the Supervisory Body from 2019 to 2024) and has been a member of the Board of Directors and the Board of Statutory Auditors of various companies, including listed companies, insurance companies, investment firms (SIM), and asset management companies (SGR).

Currently, among other positions, he serves as Chair of the Board of Statutory Auditors in companies belonging to the Eni Group (Ecofuel S.p.A. and Bioraffineria di Gela S.p.A.) and the TIM Group (Tim San Marino S.p.A. and Telefonía Mobile Sammarinese S.p.A.). He is also a standing auditor of CNP Vita Assicura S.p.A. and Eni Insurance S.p.A. (Eni Group). Additionally, he is a member of the Supervisory Board of Polo Strategico Nazionale S.p.A.

Guido Paolucci is the author of numerous monographs and essays on economic and business topics, as well as dozens of articles published in leading international journals.

