BANCA SISTEMA PRESENTS EMILIANO ESPOSTO

TODAY SEES THE OPENING OF 6TH ART EXHIBITION WITHIN THE PROJECT
"BANCA SISTEMA ARTE"

Milan – Rome, 28 February 2013

Today sees the opening of the "diecidodici" art exhibition in Banca Sistema's Rome offices, Piazzale delle Belle Arti 8. The exhibition, until May 28th 2013, reflects the two-year period (2010-12) most representative works by the young artist Emiliano Esposto.
This initiative is part of "Banca SISTEMA ARTE" project on contemporary art to encourage the Italian artists' work and enhance the importance of their creative heritage.

Emiliano Esposto's works describe his different view of times, now painting abstract forms, now drawing human figures, simple yet subtly complex, never authentic yet ironic. By reinventing the human being and investigating the intimate soul, Emiliano Esposto becomes a storyteller and shows an original use of colors and textures in his portraits.
Emiliano Esposto was born in Rome in 1979. After graduating in graphic design, he started his personal research for scenic design and had the opportunity to coordinate art exhibitions, literary and film festivals on his own. In 2010 he joined the acting company Artisti Vagabondi di Milano and the artistic group Roma Showcase 29/33.

Gianluca Garbi, Ceo of Banca Sistema, said: "Emiliano Esposto's art exhibition is the 6th expo that we are hosting within the project Banca SISTEMA ARTE, to encourage young Italian artists' work and creative culture. Promoting talents in Arts means to contribute to a positive portrait of our Country worldwide, in line with our mission: by supporting the Italian economic and social systems, our bank is able to play a part in contributing to Italy's economic growth".
