PRESS RELEASE

BANCA SISTEMA HOSTS LINDA CARRARA E MASSIMILIANO ADAMI

TWO NEW ARTISTS FOR "BANCA SISTEMA ARTE" PROJECT

Milan, 16 april 2013

Banca Sistema unveils tomorrow, at 6.30 PM in its headquarters in Milan -Corso Monforte 20- the exhibition dedicated to Linda Carrara and Massimiliano Adami, two emerging figures of the Italian artistic scenario.

Linda Carrara unveils works most of whom realized during her staying in Brussels last year: a journey through large canvases, photographs taken in the Dutch town and small drawings. Landscapes, aseptic architectures without outputs, worn interiors, alive exteriors.. still life paintings that, as the gaze is focused, take shape and vitality through color.

Massimiliano Adami presents his "Fossili Moderni" –also inserted into the Triennale Design Museum of Milan permanent collection- a system for realizing pieces of furniture by making use of recycled objects, containers and polyurethane foam; and "Gommapiuma Décor", unique pieces realized re-thinking the spare elements of the industrial production of sofas and stuffings. Adami reinvents new uses for everyday objects that have ended their natural lifecycle in today's consumer world.

Works by the two artists will be exposed in the Bank's branch and offices until July 17, 2013.

Born in Bergamo in 1984, Linda Carrara studied Graphic Design and Graphic Art at the Art Institute of Monza and graduated from the Experimental Department of Contemporary Art at Accademia di Belle Arti di Brera in Milan.

Born in Monza in 1969, Massimiliano Adami studied design at the Art Institute of Monza and at the School of Design at Milan's Politecnico.

Gianluca Garbi, Ceo of Banca Sistema, said: "We are really happy to host some of the most representatives works by these two emerging talents. Banca SISTEMA ARTE has been conceived as a project to support and build a new future for young artists that, through their job, contribute to a more positive image of the country in the world".
